BRING THE PATRIOT CHEST PROGRAM TO YOUR CLASSROOM

The SAR Patriot Chest Program is an interactive presentation, intended to complement Elementary and Middle School lesson plans on the Revolutionary War and Colonial era of American History. The program's purpose is to bring that history alive, while providing students with a sense of the period and appreciation of the men and women who founded our nation. Presentations use many reproduction artifacts for students to handle that make the period come to life. For more information or to schedule a presenter for your classroom, please email rsauer@sar.org.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR RARITIES

Revolutionary War Rarities, the podcast from the Sons of the American Revolution, is now approaching the end of Season 2. This Season has included episodes on the founding of the Marine Corps, Yankee Doodle, ice harvesting, the Bermuda Gun Powder Plot, a series of three episodes on the Crossing of the Delaware, and even the Declaration of Dependence (not Independence), just to name a few. Revolutionary War Rarities is dedicated to the little-known facts of the American Revolution. And...what is less known than the Declaration of Dependence? Visit www.fastfunhistory.com and checkout Season 2, Episode 9 entitled "I Declare Dependence" and find out more. Also, please subscribe to our YouTube Channel, follow us on Instagram, and become a member of our private YouTube Group.

NEW ACQUISITION

Hannah Prince Sampler, 1787

Hannah Prince was born on March 19th, 1775, one month before the battles of Lexington and Concord. Growing up in Marblehead, Massachusetts, Hannah learned how to sew and weave. At age 12 in 1787, Hannah completed this sampler demonstrating her skill in needleworking and her educational accomplishments. This is a very early example of Marblehead samplers. Hannah was extremely talented and featured motifs and subjects rarely seen in samplers from the area including animals, insects, and various flowers.

Purchased with funds donated by the Texas SAR Ladies Auxiliary.
