SAR ATTENDS NCHE CONFERENCE

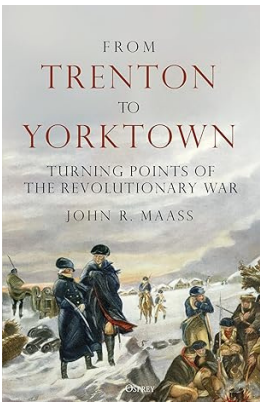

SAR Outreach Education was thrilled to attend the National Council for History Educators Conference from March 20-22, 2025, in St. Louis, MO. It was wonderful to meet hundreds of Social Studies teachers and administrators and to let them know about SAR Youth Awards, Patriot Chest presentations and online resources for teachers. For more information about these resources, please email education@sar.org. Outreach Education's next conference stop will be the National Council on the Social Studies in Washington, D.C., December 5-7.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR RARITIES

Are you curious about some of the crazy facts and little-known people of the American Revolution? If so, make sure and check out Revolutionary War Rarities, the podcast from The Sons of the American Revolution. New episodes are released every two weeks on YouTube and most podcast applications. Join us as we explore the truth behind Liberty Trees, our fighting founding fathers, women in the Revolution, weapons of the Revolution, and many other topics.

Author Interview

SPEAKING OUT ABOUT HISTORY

Check out our latest author interview with John R. Maass, writer of From Trenton to Yorktown: Turning Points of the Revolutionary War.

NEW ACQUISITION

Sand Timer, 1770

Sand timers or hour glasses were particularly useful onboard ships. They were used to measure speed, provide a regimented work schedule, and maintain accurate logs.
