

NEWSLETTER

SAR Outreach Education

SAR COLLECTIONS CATALOG NOW AVAILABLE ONLINE

SAR Outreach Education is thrilled to announce that the SAR Collections Catalog is now available online to the public! Items in both the archives and objects catalog are online for viewing by SAR members, teachers and students. These primary resources give a glimpse of what life was like during the American Revolution and offer educators additional resources to supplement their lesson plans. This upgrade was generously supported by an America250KY Grant. Check it out today!

SAR Collections
Catalog

REVOLUTIONARY WAR RARITIES

Are you curious about some of the crazy facts and little-known people of the American Revolution? If so, make sure and check out Revolutionary War Rarities, the podcast from The Sons of the American Revolution. New episodes are released every two weeks on YouTube and most podcast applications. Join us as we explore the truth behind Liberty Trees, our fighting founding fathers, women in the Revolution, weapons of the Revolution, and many other topics.

NEW ACQUISITION

1750-1760 English Grenadier's Basket-Hilted Hanger made by Samuel Harvey of Birmingham

Donated by Rob Moore, Hawaii Society SAR

During the American Revolution each battalion of the British Army contained a Grenadier company. Grenadiers were issued specialized equipment, such as this hanger, to not only denote their elite status but also to provide premium weaponry as they were often used as assault troops. These distinct and very well-made swords afforded Grenadiers ample protection of their right hand as they did some of the heaviest hand-to-hand fighting of the conflict.

UPCOMING EVENT

Join Curator Zac Distel for a behind the scenes look at the artifacts featured in the latest edition of Selections from the Collection. Tune in on August 6 from 12:30PM-1:30PM Eastern for a closer look at these artifacts related to Connecticut in the Revolution. This virtual event is open to all SAR Members and the public!

Register Now!

